	James Moses stated his appreciation for Harder+Co's involvement, who not only helped guide the work, but "painted a picture" of where we've been. Michelle Parker stated the vignettes that Harder+Co highlighted in the strategic plan have been important things to note and she appreciated reading them. Having served in an elected official capacity, Gary Ovitt appreciated the fact that Harder+Co ventured into the community and interacted with the diverse public of San Bernardino County and feels H+C did a great job in analyzing the data and asking the public for their thoughts and opinions. He looks forward to the plan being representative of what the people's needs are and believes it will have good impact. Joelle Green stated that community members expressed their gratitude for the opportunity to express and give their input. It was very meaningful and is critically important that the community sees their own stories reflected in the plan.
