Jelly Roll files to end marriage to Bunnie Xo

Country music star Jelly Roll has filed for divorce from his wife, Bunnie Xo, of 10 years, according to court filings.

The complaint filed in Franklin, Tennessee, by the “Hard Fought Hallelujah” singer lists the reason for divorce as irreconcilable differences. The couple were married in Las Vegas in 2016. The filing lists the date of separation as May 9.

Jelly Roll, whose given name is Jason DeFord, won three Grammys earlier this year.

TOM HOLLAND APPEARS TO CONFIRM MARRIAGE

Tom Holland has apparently confirmed that he and his long-time love, Zendaya, have already tied the knot.

The actor may have ended months of speculation triggered by Zendaya stylist Law Roach’s assertion in March that the couple had already held a wedding. In a very 2026 twist, artificial intelligence played a role in the reveal.

LUKE’S LIGHT SABER, HAND STILL ON IT, CAN BE YOURS

A light saber with Luke Skywalker’s severed hand from “The Empire Strikes Back” that is expected to sell for seven figures headlines an upcoming auction of valuables from movies, music and other corners of pop culture.

The Hollywood & Entertainment Signature Auction presented by Heritage Auctions, announced

Tuesday and to be held July 13-17, also includes hats from “The Wizard of Oz” and “Willy Wonka and the Chocolate Factory,” hoverboards from “Back to the Future II,” rugs from “The Big Lebowski” and a pair of Rocky’s boxing boots.

The light saber, used on-screen by Mark Hamill in the climactic Cloud City fight in the 1980 “Star Wars” sequel, where Darth Vader declares “I am your father,” includes a severed hand effects rig. It’s never been up for auction before and bidding opens at $1 million.
