

Making A Difference

FIRST 5
SAN BERNARDINO

Local Evaluation Highlights: Fiscal Year 2011-2012

First 5 San Bernardino promotes, supports and enhances the health and early development of children prenatal through age five, their families, and their communities through agencies who provide those services.

The Commission receives funds from the 1998 Proposition 10 tobacco initiative.

Early Care & Education

- 391 developmental screenings were conducted for children 0-3
- 4,294 developmental sessions were conducted for children 0-3
- 31,193 child developmental sessions were conducted for children 3-5
- 1,036 preschool sessions were conducted for children 3-5
- 1,642 home visits were conducted with parents with young children

Health & Well-Being

1,400 children and 949 parents received dental exams and/or treatment

1,690 children and 997 parents received assistance identifying and enrolling in health insurance and/or finding a medical home

In 2011-2012 First 5 San Bernardino, Department of Public Health and local obstetricians provided nearly 10,000 prenatal screenings

76 women were referred to tobacco cessation programs

87 women were referred to substance abuse treatment programs.

In 2011-2012 SART provided:

1,200 developmental and behavioral screenings

12,554 intensive behavioral treatment sessions

4,200 developmental treatment sessions

Family Support

15,897 parents were served through First 5 San Bernardino Resource Centers

2,954 of those parents received intensive case management services

1,972 parents participated in a parenting education program focusing on child safety, early literacy development, appropriate child discipline and understanding of child development

Community Engagement

Over 1,200 participants in the “All Aboard the Reading Railroad” Early Literacy events

12,405 participants in Jump Start’s annual “Read for the Record” event

4,139 visitors to “The Lisa Project” an exhibit to raise awareness of child-abuse issues

Over 400 people participated in the “Operation Splashdown” event promoting water-safety awareness

330 N. "D" Street, 5th Floor, San Bernardino, CA 92415
Phone (909) 386-7706
www.first5sanbernardino.org